Nike Leading AR Worlds...

Mike Kloser coming in from a cold paddle.

From reading the latest reports from SleepMonsters and the ARWC site, it appears that Nike Beaver continues to lead the race. The team came into the last few time cutoffs with very little time to spare (just about giving Mike's wife a nervous breakdown) but continues to pick up most (if not all) checkpoints. There is just under another full day of racing before we will know anything official. Hopefully the weather gets a little nicer and Nike continues to race well and super strong. The latest two reports are here and here.

Chris Forne coming off the paddle

Nike & Orion head out together. I hope Chris puts on some shoes.
