

Nov 04 Team Explore behind the scene

Race

Last night two thirds of the on-site team arrived to Lisboa and Estoril. Later to night Viktoria Wallin will arrive and tomorrow Andreas Mathisen is coming to Portugal.

This first day on sight, the team have been sightseeing on the bikes in Estoril, looking at the kayaks, shopping and getting some more ideas about the tactics.

Estoril is a very impressive region/city and very healthy and rich, kind of the same feeling like Malibu. Tomorrow the team will do the last equipment checks, test the waves, pack the race foods and just relax.

John Karlsson and Mikael Lindnord are changing the brake pads to new XTR, for all the downhill biking that awaits.
